IT LOOKS LIKE WAR TO THE KNIFE.

CAMMANY OUTWITS ITS HATED RIVAL-REPUB LICANS WILL PROBABLY HAVE A

TICKET OF THEIR OWN. any Hall evidently intends not to be outdon by its rival, the County Democracy. When the County emocracy County Committee met last it was ex-oted that it would name the time and place for holding its County Convention. Instead of doing so, it gave the Sub-Executive Committee the power to issue the call for the primaries and the dates and places for holding the various local conventions. When the Tammany Committee on Organization met it did precisely the same thing. The leaders of both organization and the call of the as were evidently watching each other, and endeavoring to gain any advantage that could be had. day evening the County Democracy Sub-Executive Committee fixed on Friday evening as the time for holding the primaries, and decided that the County Convention should be held in the Cooper Union on Saturday. This action was supposed to be taken to head off Tammany Hall in any action it might take, and by first putting its county ticket in the field, gain some slight advantage.

A secret meeting of the Tammany Executive Comnittee was held on Tuesday evening, and at a late our it was determined to issue a call for the primaries this evening, at which delegates to the various local sonventions will be chosen, and deciding to hold the Convention to-morrow evening in the large hall of the Wigwam, thus placing the ticket in the field a day ahead of its rival. All of the leaders were dged to secreey, and nothing was known of the action taken until yesterday. The Fammany leaders say that they will nominate a full ticket, but they cline to say who the candidate for Mayor will be. The impression is that it may be Judge Dugro.

The story printed yesterday to the effect that the County Democracy leaders in caucus yesterday had agreed on a county ticket was declared to be with-out foundation. Several leaders declared that no caucus had been held to agree on a ticket. That Mayor Hewitt will be the nominee they all agreed, but further than this nothing had been decided upon.

The Tammany leaders evidently have a surprise of ne kind in store, but what it is they decline to say. The theory was advanced last evening that they might nominate ex-Mayor Cooper for Mayor. Evidently Mr. Hewitt could not run against his own rother-in-law. Others believed that either Judge Dugro or S. S. Cox would be selected.

The Executive Committee of the Republican County Committee will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the publican State Headquarters in West Twenty-fifthst, to fix the date and issue the call for the Repubthe fix the date and issue the call for the Ropublican County Convention. It is thought that some day next week will be named. The universal sentiment is for a straight Republican ticket composed of the best men of the party. For Mayor, John F. Plumer is still the favorite in spite of his declination. The names of Morris K. Jesup, Edward Mitchell and William D. Strong were spoken of last evening by prominent Republicans as desirable candidates to head the ticket.

THE MOVEMENT AGAINST HILL IT GROWS DAILY-PLANNING A BIG MASS-MEET-ING.

The movement against Governor Hill is gaining ground rapidly. Every day brings reports of progress in all parts of the State. In some parts of the State the sentiment in opposition to the rum candidate is so strong that steps are already being taken to organtze clubs in the interest of the committee that is tirecting the independent campaign against the Governor. This committee is doing a vast amount of effective work. Its management is not intrusted to lot of amateurs, as is frequently the case, but to men who understand the political situation perfectly and who are able to make every blow tell.

Arrangements are being made to hold a public ceting to protest against the election of Hill. It will probably be held at Cooper Union within a fortniiht. In regard to it the committee sent out the following letter yesterday to prominent Democrats, Republicans and Independents who are known to prosed to Hill:

My Dear Sir: If you are in favor of a public meeting to be held between the present date and the 1st of November, at some public place, such as Cooper Institute, to formally express the opposition of Democratic voters to the recent nomination of David B. Hill, kindly sign and mail the inclosed postal card.

The postal card mentioned has this printed on it:

The postal card mentioned has this printed out the call for a public meeting in opposition to David B. Hill. On the Presidential issue, I shall vote for Mesars. Cleveland and Thurman.

The committee believe that this will be one of the biggest meetings of the campaign.

DEMOCRATS HEAR PROTECTION SPEECHES. The Republicans of Flatbush, L. I., had an enthusiastic and hearty meeting in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening. The building was thronged, many ocrats crowding to hear Protection speeche Music by Dodworth's band and fireworks preceded he speech-making. President Maynard, of the Republican Association of the town, called the meeting to order and presented William L. Keese to preside Mr. Keese made a erse and telling speech and in-troduced General Stewart L. Woodford, a favorite wherever he is heard. He made a strong and effective address on the issues of the campaign and then left the hall to speak in the Palace Rink, in Brooklyn. Ex-Assemblyman John Cahey, a former resident of Flatbush, also spoke, and his humorous characterizations of pelitical matters created hearty laughter, while his arguments were appreciated. There was loud applause and cheers for Harrison, Morton and Miller.

GOVERNOR FORAKER IN STAMFORD

Conn., has seen since Mr. Blaine spoke there in 1884 held last night, upon the occasion of Governor Foraker's arrival and speech. In the afternoon he spoke at Bridgeport. He reached Stamford at 4 'clock, and at half-past 7 was escorted from the home of Samuel Fessenden to the Opera House by several hundred uniformed torch bearers and half a dozen bands. The Opera House was densely crowded Governor Foraker spoke two hours and confined himself to a discussion of the tariff question. He pre sented a striking historical review of the tariff and then proceeded to show by clear, striking and ining illustrations the folly of return to a free trade policy. At times he rose to flights of eloquence that stirred his audience to tumultuous enthusiasm. The speech had the immediate and practical effect of making many converts.

EX-SENATOR MILLER AT WATKINS. PUTTING THE BLAME OF THE LIQUOR ISSUE

WHERE IT BELONGS. Watkins, N. Y., Oct. 3 (Special).-Warner Miller, the Republican candidate for Governor, arrived here from Cortland this afternoon in company with the Morton Cortland this afternoon in company with the above Glee Club of Malone, who are singing Republican songs at Mr. Miller's meetings. Mr. Miller was met at the depot by Fremont Cole, the Speaker of the Assembly, Judge O. P. Hurd and other leading Republicans. This evening Mr. Miller addressed an audience of 2,000 persons in the Watkins Opera House on the political issues of the day. he gave a historical review of the various protective tariffs which have been adopted, argued that the country had been prosperous under their operation and appealed to voters to defend by their votes the present tariff. Then, turning to

I see that Governor Hill accuses us of having the temperance question into politics by favoring the pass age of the High-License law to diminish the number of On the contrary, it is Governor Hill himself that has dragged this question into politics by vetoin every temperance measure of practical importance passed by successive Republican Legislatures. He has thus vetoed the two bills prohibiting the sale of liquor in the Capitol, the bill forbidding the sale of liquor within half a mile of the Willard Insane Asylum, the Vedder Liquor Tax bill, the High-License bill apply ing to the cities of New-York and Brooklyn and the High License bill applying to the whole State. Who asked him to veto these bills? Was it any clergymen or any reputable citizens? On the contrary, did he not veto those bills at the behest of the liquor-dealers of the State! I say that such action by him was an infamous abuse of the

ZEALOUS HUNGARIAN REPUBLICANS. MANY CLUBS HOLD A JOINT RATIFICATION

MEETING-THE SPEAKERS. The different Hungarian Republican clubs of this city met at their headquarters last evening and marched to Florence Hall, at Second-ave, and First-st., where they held a Harrison and Morton and Müller and Cruger ratification meeting. The hall was packed from wall to wall, and the meeting was marked by the strongest enthusiasm. K. Thurber presided and Colonel Cruger delivered a short address, in which he made a brilliant and scathing review of the Democratic party. A telegram from General Harrison was read, thanking the Hungarian Republican Clubs for their earnest efforts in behalf of the party and wishing them every success. Letters were also read from Mr. Morton and Mr. Miller. Campaign sing-ing, under the leadership of Professor Adams, formed a striking part of the programme, and Captain Jack Crawford read one of his poems.

The speaking was able and to the point. W. C. Plummer showed conclusively that the Democratic party was a free-trade party, while Colonel Ayme, of Illinois, summed up the records of the two parties, de by salient examples that the whiskey party of the crats had broken all of its most solemn pledges. Julius Schwartz spoke eloquently of the upright character of Hungarian Americans, paid a graceful tribute to the honorable stand they had taken with the Republican party. and refuted the Democratic charge that they were a people of paupers and vagrants. Other speakers were Colonel Thomas H. Dudley, August Schallenberg, Stephen Roszafi, of Washington; James R. O'Beirne and James P. Foster, president of the Republican League.

DESTRUCTIVE TO COTTON FACTORIES. PLAIN WORDS FROM TREASURER COOLIDGE, OF

THE AMOSKEAG MILLS, UPON THE FREE-TRADE MILLS BILL.

Manchester, N. H., Oct. 3 (Special) .- At the annua ceting to-day of the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, the largest cotton manufacturing corporation in the country, sensation was created by the stand taken by Treasurer T. Jefferson Coolidge in presenting his annual report. In addition to being treasurer of the Amoskeag Company, Mr. Coolidge is president of the Stark and Amory corporations, both large concerns After reviewing the highly satisfactory year's work, Mr. Coolidge says:

"We ought to expect fairly profitable business for the next few years, and were it not for the growth of the free-trade feeling. I should have but little anxiety. You are well aware that it is simply im-possible to manufacture colored goods and fine yarn ithout protection. According to the most exact figures, picker hands, carders, mule spinners and weavers receive in this country from 40 to 80 per cent more than in England, while carpenters, machinists and masons are paid double. If, therefore, the products of English labor could be imported free, should have to reduce our labor about 33 per cent. It The Executive Committee of the Republican General Committee of Kings County will ask the General Committee at its October meeting, next Tuesday, to fix mean closing the mills, or running them on coarse quantities as the country can use, and if all the mills were turned on to these heavy yarns, too many would be produced and most of the cotton mills in New-England, after a long struggle, would have to close. To judge by the Mills bill, the free-trade party would go far enough to injure us seriously."

Four years ago Mr. Coolidge was an ardent supporter of Mr. Cleveland.

DEMOCRATIC THEFTS IN INDIANA.

HELPING AN INDICTED ELECTION FORGER WITH

THE MONEY OF A HOSPITAL. Indianapolis, Oct. 3 (Special).—Disclosures of an important and sensational nature in relation to the Democratic management of the Indiana benevolent institutions were made in an affidavit filed to-day with Attorney-General Michener, by Dr. David V. until a few weeks ago the private secretary of the superintendent of the State Insane Hospital. The statement comes from Dr. Kyte voluntarily. It was worn to before the clerk of the Supreme Court. He charges that $1,000 of the funds of the institution, appropriated for its maintenance, were given to John Sullivan, Democratic County Clerk, in December. 1887, at a time when it was represented that he " was badly pressed." It was about that time that Sullivan, with Boss Coy and eleven other Democratic politicians, was on trial in the United States Court on the charge of election conspiracy. Kyte himself, as private secretary of the Superintendent, drew the heck for Sullivan. It was with great difficulty that the money was recovered finally, and in the meantime the accounts of the institution were changed in various ways to conceal the transaction. stated that the trustees of the institution, who are also Democrats, drew out a false voycher more than the actual expense for maintenance at about the same time, and finally, when he asked how he should make his books balance, he was told to charge the sums unaccounted for to attorneys' fees. Other crooked transactions are also mentioned. The Attorney-General states that he will use the affidavits as the basis of supplemental charges against the trustees of the hospital, against whom a case for impeachment is al-ready pending in court.

CORNELL REPUBLICANS ENTHUSIASTIC. Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 3 (Special).-An enthusiastic mass meeting was held to night at Library Hall by the Republicans of Cornell University. Professor I. P. Roberts, dean of the College of Agriculture and director of the new State Experiment Station, addressed the audience in favor of Harrison and Morton and Protection. Professor S. P. Williams delivered a powerful address. Frank C. Callan, of Lockport, was chairman of the meeting. Sons of Senator His-cock and ex-Senator Warner Miller, John Ford, of Medina, N. Y., and D. Upton, of Michigan, were prominent in the organization of a students' Republican club. Resolutions were passed amid enthusiasm. Dr. R. H. Thurston, director of Sibley College; Dr. Fuertes, the dean of the civil engineering depart ment, and other prominent professors were on the platform. The meeting indicated that a large majority of the Cornell faculty and of her 1,200 students have decided notions as to the alleged benefits of free trade.

So much good nature and enthustasm as is jammed into the large store where the meetings are held every day is seldom seen at a political, or at any other kind of a meeting. Yesterday there was a crowd around the door clamorit was over. When it was known that Governor Beaver, of Pennsylvania, was one of the speakers, the lesire was greater than ever to get inside and if the hall had been twice the size it would undoubtedly have been filled. E. A. Hartshorn, of the American Protection League, spoke and was followed by Governor Beaver.

John F. Scanlon, of Chicago, author of "Why Ire land is Poor"; W. P. Hepburn, of Iowa; James K. Magie, of Illinois, and General Woodford, of Brooklyn, also made good speeches. After the speech-making, a man wearing a Cleveland and Thurman button began to discuss with some of the members present the unfriendliness of the Republicans to the workingmen by not removing the duty on salt. He was allowed to discuss his side of the ques tion until he had said all he wanted to, when some one asked him what the price of salt was. hummed and hawed, but aid not know whether it was 90 cents or $5 a barrel. REFINERIES TEMPORARILY CLOSED.

MANY EMPLOYES DISCHARGED-THEY BLAME THE SUGAR TRUST. The shutting down of the Bay State Refinery, fol-owed by the closing of the large refineries of De Castro & Dormer, in East Brooklyn yesterday, caused something of a stir in lower Wall-st. Notwithstanding the fact that it was declared at the New York office of the company that the shutting-down at this time of the year was nothing unusual, many people went to the office repeatedly yesterday to ee Theodore A. Havemeyer, president of the Sugar Trust, in regard to the matter. Mr. Havemeyer was not at his office, however, during the afternoon. Callers were told that he could probably be found at the refineries in East Brooklyn, while those who went there were referred back to the New-York of-fice, No. 117 Wall-st. None of the members of the firm could be found, either.

Mr. Searles, treasurer of the Sugar Trust, when seen by a reporter at No. 112 Wall-st., at a late hour in the afternoon, said that Mr. Havemever had not ordered the shutting-down of either company. 'The trust," he said, "has had nothing to do with heir closing. The Bay State Refinery and those of De Castro & Dormer are precisely parallel cases. They have shut down because the supply of sugar greater than the demand. The latter company usually shuts down at this time of the year, when the demand is especially light, as the other neighboring refineries are amply adequate to supply the market. They probably will not begin operations again until next spring, perhaps in May." Nearly 1,000 men were paid off and discharged from the refinery in Kent-ave., Brooklyn, at the end of their day's work yesterday. The men stood around he refinery in groups and were strong in their condemnation of the Sugar Trust, to which they laid the blame for the situation of affairs. Some of them, when seen about the matter, said that there had never before been such a wholesale discharge of employes. They had been told, however, by the principals of the company that as many men as possible would be taken care of during the shut-down. Superintendent Peterson said that the fifty men still employed would be discharged as soon as they had finished the work in their departments. In the South Ninth-st. refinery about twenty-five men will be retained during the winter to do what little work is necessary. At the South Third-st. works, however, still fower will be kept at work.

PLANS OF ACTORS AND MANAGERS.

Judging from the large audiences which nightly fill the Madison Square Theatre, there is every reason to believe that "A Legal Wreck" could keep the boards all winter. This delightful comedy has achieved a success not anticipated by Mr. Palmer. Monday evening saw the fittleth performance, and handsome souvenirs were given out in the form of a legal document folder, with the programma business at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, which is crowded to the doors at every performance. Seats are being secured for two or three weeks in advance, and it ecome exceedingly difficult to obtain places after 8 o'clock in the evening.

A. M. Palmer has arranged with William Gillette to present on October 20, at Paimer's (formerly Wallack's) Theatre, a grand production of "Held by the Enemy." When "A Legal Wreck" was first produced at the Madison Square Theatre it was the intention of the management to follow it up with a production of "Held by the Ensmy," but "A Legal Wreck's" prosperous run prevents any change being made at the Madison Square Theatre, so Mr. Palmer has decided to give "Held by the Enemy" as his opening play at Wallack's. It is singular that the first play to be presented by the new management at Wallack's will not only be the work of an American, but that " Held by the Enemy," before it had ever been produced, was offered to Mr. Wallack, who at the time rejected it. Since that time the play has not only become famous in England as well as America, but it was played at the Star last year, then under Mr. Wallack's managen and it will now be given at Wallack's Theatre by Mr. Palmer.

Theatre parties, which were so popular last year at the Lyceum Theatre, have begun again. The treasurer states that over two hundred seats for various nights have already been secured for parties numbering from eight t two dozen.

The announcement of Edward Solomon's approaching marriage in London to Kate Eversleigh has created con siderable speculative gossip in theatrical circles, but there is no prospect of trouble. "Abe" Hummell, Mr. Solomon's counsel here, said that his client was perfectly free to marry if he so desired, as his marriage with Lillian Russell was not a legal one. Miss Russell's mother said yesterday that Lillian would raise no objections to Teddy's" plans, as she was only too glad to be rid of him. Master Harrl, the boy soprane, whose real name is Harry Brandon and whose singing has been at the Chickering Hall and Steinway Hall concerts, created something of a sensation at Dockstader's Monday night. Before his song was half finished the audience broke in upon him with a tumuit of applause, and it was some time before he could continue.

Fanny Davenport has returned from California after a successful tour extending over several months. She began rehearsals of "La Togoa" for her fall season Tues-day at the Lyceum Theatre. Miss Davenport has lost in fiesh, but has gained in health and looks as brown and merry as a young girl. When asked if she was pleased with her Western trip, she laughed and said she ought to be, for her profits were over $20,000. Her season will open in Rochester on October 15. "-La Tosca" will be principal play, though she will occasionally play

The last weeks of the successful spectacle " Mathias Sandorf are announced at Niblo's by Bolossy Kiralfy, as the spectacle is booked for presentation, with all its rilliant and popular ballet features, at the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, on October 15. Already this an nouncement has caused an increased demand for seats at Nibio's for the remaining nights of the "run," and in Philadelphia seats are selling rapidly for the opening per formances there.

HILL AND HAWORTH TO PART COMPANY. The bond of affectionate sympathy between J. M. Hill and "Joe" Haworth has been broken. Yesterday Haworth gave two weeks' notice to quit, and said he was done with "Philip Herne." The reason assigned for this action is that Haworth was so enthusiastic over the play when he read it that he insisted upon having a percentage of the net receipts instead of a salary for his rendition of the title role. He got all he asked for, but is disappointed nevertheless, for his share of the net proceeds was not nevertheless, for his snare of the net proceeds was not what he expected it would be. Mr. Hill says he is perfectly satisfied to have Haworth resign, as he thinks it will be beneficial all around. Frederick Paulding has been engaged to play the part of Philip Herne, beginning

"THE YEOMAN" TO APPEAR ON WEDNESDAY. Rehearsals of the new Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "The Yeoman," are still in setive progress at the Casino, but

Mr. Aronson thinks he will not be able to get ready for its production before Weinesday night. The orchestra parts have not yet arrived and there are a number of other unlooked-for delays in connection with costumes and scen-ery. On Wednesday evening, however, the opera will be produced without fail.

THE BANKERS OF THE NATION.

BEGINNING THEIR ANNUAL CONVENTION IN CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—The American Bankers' Association assembled to-day in the Scottish Rite Cathe dral, where Mr. James Espey, of this city, made the opening address, to which an eloquent response was made by Mr. Logan C. Murray, president of the asociation. Mr. Murray said, in part:

Commercial trusts have been formed very rapidly within the last year, and now behold the farmers have formed a trust; still they were early in the field, as the granger movement of a dozen years ago was but this in spirit, if not in name. Make a common grave for selfish and unlawful movements against rallways, etc., and commercial combinations against the necessaries of life; see that the stone be not rolled away from this grave and the century will bend to true progress.

SUCCESS OF THE SUFFOLK COUNTY FAIR.

THE THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF THE

The thirty-sixth annual fair of the Suffolk County, I. I., Agricultural Society got fairly under way yesterday. Though Tuesday was the opening day, the interest centred in yesterday because the judges made the awards, and the winners went home happy. There were 7,285 people present to witness the creditable display which the association made. President Corein, of the Long Island Island Railroad, took to the fair Messrs, Charles A. Dana, St. Clair McKelway, General Porter and Bernard Peters, who inspected th exhibits with a good deal of interest. A baseball match started the day's amusements. Then came a trotting contest of the 2:30 class or better. annual election of officers was held and Nathaniel W. Fowler was again elected president, Selah S. Brewster vice-president, George W. Cooper treasurer and James L. Millard secretary. The directors are Edward Dayton, Captain E. H. White, John S. Havens, T. W. Smith, David Carle and Henry A. Brown,

OBITUARY.

JOHN D. GRIFFEN. John D. Griffen, a well-known merchant of this eity, died at Delaware Water Gap yesterday, after a lingering illness of nearly a year. He had gone to Delaware Water Gap early in the summer with the hope of benefitting by the change of air, but he coninued to decline in health. He was born in New-York, of Ouaker parents, in 1836, and passed the greater part of his life in this city. For thirty years he has been in the provision business, and at the time of his death his place was at No. 65 Cortlandt-st. He was ne of the old members of the Church of the Holy Trinity. The Rev. E. CONSIDERING THE NEEDS OF SCHOOLS schools of the city for the opening day in Septe

MISS MASON EXONERATED AND MISS POPE FINED-HEALTH OF SCHOLARS. Superintendent Jasper yesterday reported to the loard of Education the attendance in the public as 133,107; last year it was 125,897, an increase of over 7,000. The average attendance for the first week in September was 137,068. On the first day of school 2,685 pupils were refused admission to the schools for lack of room and other reasons, against 1,535 a year ago.

The trustees of the Pifteenth Ward presented a report of the case of Miss Mason, exonerating her from the charges which have been brought against her and announcing her resignation from the schools. The report was placed on file. The Board voted to disontinue class-rooms on the ground floor of Grammar School No. 53, in East Seventy-ninth-st., until the rooms are placed in a proper sanitary condition. A report of the Board of Health on the condition of these class-rooms was also presented. Miss A. T. Horgan was recommended by the trustees of the Twenty-fourth Ward for the principalship of Primary, Sphool No. 47 in Mosholu of that ward. The recommendation was referred to the Committee on Teache for a report.

of the rules of the Board of Education requiring the school inspectors to report to the Board on the condiffon of the schools in their respective districts. "This has not been done except in a few instances." continued Mr. Devoe, " and if the inspectors had done their duty properly the Board would not have all this dirty linen of the various schools to wash in public."

Mr. Devoe presented a resolution calling the attentien of the inspectors to this regulation and directing that all should be required to make their reports. This resolution was adopted, and the Board then went into executive session to consider the charges against Miss E. A. Pope. After several hours' discuss minority report, signed by Mrs. Agnew and Mr. Crary, for the removal of Miss Pope was voted down. The msjority report, signed by Commissioners Wood, Welch and Grand, which reprimanded Miss Pope, was then amended by Mr. Tamsen, fining her three months salary, and adopted, and a resolution was then adopted instructing the Committee on Trustees to investigate the conduct of the virustees of the Ninth Ward.

FEATHER WORKERS GO ON STRIKE.

REDUCTION MADE IN THE WAGES OF ISIDOR COHNFELD'S EMPLOYES.

Six hundred girls employed in Isidor Cohnfeld's ostrich feather establishment, Greene and Spring sts., were told on Saturday that a reduction of twenty-five per cent would take place in their wages, beginning yesterlay. As the average wages are only as a west and many of the girls are obliged to support mothers and sisters, the reduction meant extra hardships to the majority of them. The result was that they determined to go on strike, and on Monday and Tuesday few returned to work. Tuesday they met at the factory to receive their wages, five of them receiving notice of their discharge on a charge of being ring-leaders in the strike. The New-York Workingwomen's the evening a large number did so, and received a promise of the support of the society. Yesterday afternoon the executive committee of the society met at their headquarters and discussed means to support those of the strikers who needed help. Several women in good society called or wrote promi ing aid, as did the secretary of Sorosis. It was decided that those girls who were out on strike and those who would come out, but are still at work, should receive food and shelter. All but twelve of the one hundred curlers, and about fifty, or one third of the sewers, as well as a number of preparer returned to work yesterlay. meeting of the feather workers of this city, numbering 5,000, will be held in Cooper Union, at which severa manufacturers have offered to speak. A public meeting of the strikers and their sympathizers will be held to-night at No. 28 Lafayette place.

NO CONFUSION FROM SIMILAR TITLES. In the Supreme Court, Chambers, on Monday, Justice O'Brien delivered a decision in the case of the Commercial Union Assurance Company (Limited) against Morris H. Smith, representing the Commercial Union Life Insurnce Company of New-York. The plaintiff desired to make permanent a temporary injunction restraining the defendant from using or attempting to use the words "Commercial Urston" in its title. The plaintiff asked the interposition of the court on the ground that injury was likely to result to it from the use by the defendant of a business name so similar to that devised and used by it as its own. The Assurance Company is a foreign corporation, created and existing under the laws of Great Britain, havcarry on the business of life, fire and marine insurance, In 1871 it was permitted to engage in the fire insurance business in the State of New-York, and it now has no right under the laws then and now existing to engage in any other than the fire insurance business. On beginning business in 1888 the defendant adopted its present name. Judge O'Brien does not consider that the titles in quesfon are so sufficiently similar to mislead any one or to injure tion are so sumerently similar to missead any one or to injust the plaintiff, irrespective of the question that the plaintiff does only a fire and marine insurance business, while the defendants engage in a life and annuity business purely. The affidavits showed that there were many are insurance companies having precisely the same name as life insurance confusion arose by reason of such similarity. The mount
